School doors opening for students this week

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

In buildings throughout the Plymouth-Canton school district last week, staffers waxed floors, scrubbed walls, checked lockers and stocked classrooms in preparation for the first day of school.

Students report Tuesday, Aug. 27, for a morning session. Today is the first official day back to school for teachers.

EDUCATION

Friday found Central Middle School principal Barb Church ironing a banner.

"We don't have a sign out front, and making a good sign is expensive. So one of our parents, Vicki Garrett, volunteered to make a giant banner that says Central Middle School," said Church. "We're going to hang it in our big glass window.

"It's made with special banner fabric from Seattle, and says Central Middle School in giant blue letters on a yellow background. I'm ironing it so that maintenance can hang it first thing Monday morning."

Others were stenciling and painting. Teacher Sandi Jester was sponge painting her second-floor classroom at Central.

Central secretary Sandy Mueller said, "We're checking locks to make sure they all work; and changing combinations if need be. The custodians have done an incredible job this summer.

"They've re-stocked teachers' rooms with books, and moved teachers into different classrooms," she said.

Teachers and administrators throughout the district were putting up bulletin boards, completing last-minute scheduling, and registering students.

At middle schools, sixth graders were coming in for "mini-tours" of their new schools.

Church shares the hopes of many principals. "We want all our students to experience success at Central," she said. "We've made a number of changes we think are very positive.

"There's lots to be excited about. We have a lot of neat things going for kids. We've planned all year so we can start the school year providing students with positive experiences where they can be academically and socially successful."

Contract talks will continue

School officials and the teachers' union could not reach agreement Sunday. Teachers' contract expires Friday. More talks are set.

BY M.B. DILLON AND JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITERS

Despite a lot of hope, bargainers for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools and the Plymouth-Canton Education Association did not hammer out a new contract at Sunday afternoon negotiations. More talks are scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 29.

"It was a 3-1/2-hour meeting. It was not productive. I didn't say we were negotiating. We sat mostly waiting," said PCEA President Chuck Portelli.

School spokeswoman Judy Evola agreed. "There were no meaningful advancements in negotiations. However, everyone is negotiating in good faith."

Following a 7 a.m. meeting today at Salem High School, teachers will report to work. Students will report for a morning session Tuesday.

Negotiators bargained all day Thursday and from 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Friday. Bargaining began in Februrary. "It's been long and tedious," Portelli said.

Board of Education Treasurer Sue Davis said, "Our point of view is that we need a contract. There's no other option. It's real important to the board that we have everything in place to everyone's advantage."

The current two-year contract expires Friday, Aug. 30. "They (school officials) are talking about limited extensions," Portelli said, adding that school officials are talking about negotiating only a one-year contract now.

Two major sticking points are salaries and health care. The district has sought cuts in benefits, as well as agreement on a new insurance carrier.

Portelli said teachers now have Blue Cross-Blue Shield. "They (school officials) are proposing to go to a Catherine McAuley or Preferred PPO with co-pays and deductibles increased. With the proposals they are making for health care and the salaries, it's a lot of swallow."

Teachers have maintained that health care issues can't be isolated from salary. "If we accept the cuts they want to make in our health care, then our position on salary will be different," said one teacher.

Public Act 112 has changed bargaining game rules "The district has the right under the act to bid out all insurances on a yearly basis," Portelli said a couple weeks ago. "But the coverage cannot change without bargaining the coverage."

The expiring contract granted teachers a two-and-a-half percent pay increase. Entry level pay currently is $30,997. Top of the scale is $62,052.

Davis didn't anticipate big changes. "There could be a shift in health care, but I don't think it will change the dynamics," she said.

Davis was adamant that progress be made rapidly. "The board made a commitment to be in touch, and to be available. The board believes that a contract settlement is the only thing that is appropriate.

"The thing that concerns me is that we need to think of the future as well as today," she said. "The decisions we all make will have an impact down the road."

Portelli admitted he was optimistic going into Sunday's session. "But to sit through a session like we did today...we didn't do anything. They didn't bring us upstairs to talk with the board."

Other bargaining game rules have changed, too. If teachers decide to strike there are economic penalties amounting to the per-diem rate of pay for each individual, plus $5,000 per day to the teachers association. The district also would be penalized if there is a work stoppage.

If there is an impasse, both sides have to agree to go to an impasse. If a state mediator comes back with a proposal that's somewhere between where both parties are, the teachers' association is bound by that ruling. The school board is not. The school board can reject it outright and implement their last best proposal, Portelli said.

"You tell me if you could walk out," Portelli added.

Country Place takes you back to the good old days

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW

Modern pet supply stores are fine if selection and price are your highest priority, but for authentic atmosphere and amity you've got to look elsewhere.

At Country Place, a feed and pet supplies store on Canton Center Road between Joy and Warren, Taffy, a 6-year-old border collie will greet you, often with a tennis ball in her mouth.

Taffy likes to herd the tennis balls, said owner Cathy Foege, but she retreats from cameras.

Canton is becoming more urban every day, rendering the Country Place more charmingly anachronistic. Standing inside the one-room store, you can easily imagine yourself in Beal City, East Tawas or Hillman.

The seeds and feeds are packaged in paper bags, identified with black marker and stored on green wooden shelves behind the counter.

The prices for various items are written on strips of paper

Canton Township was counting on getting a bigger payback from a mid-decade census, but it won't be as much as originally anticipated.

The township figured it would get about $585,000 extra in state subsidy if it was successful in showing that the population grew by at least 15 percent over its

Winkel bids adieu

BY VALERIE OLANDER

Canton Fire Marshal Art Winkel will attest that the heating duct in his office meets all township codes, but with a wink he'll tell you that he's not quite sure about the rest of the Public Safety building. A hearty laugh soon follows.

After 40 years of fire fighting, the last 25 of which were with Canton's Fire Department, Winkel will be hanging up his helmet come January.

"I've reached a point where I feel I should retire. Forty years of fire service is a long time," he said.

Winkel has gone beyond the call of duty as a firefighter and administrator, serving the Canton community as a member of the Goodfellows and the Lions Club. He also served on the committee for the Canton Country Festival and held the highly esteemed position of "cow chip competition coordinator."

For those who weren't residents at the time or were residents and purposely repressed the memories, the competition was to see how far a hardened cow pie could fly. Residents and local officials, including Sen. Bob Geake, were willing participants to the activity.

"Politicians loved it," Winkel said. Well, most politicians, Winkel received letters graciously declining an offer to participate from the governor and the White House.

Much to the dismay of his wife, some preparation went into making sure the cow chips were of the right caliber (size and density.) to toss. So

Students head back to classrooms Wednesday

Local students are preparing to trade their swimsuits, tennis rackets and summer jobs for books and class schedules.

The Wayne-Westland school district will have teachers report for work today with students to be in classes for a half-day of classes Wednesday and Thursday before the first full day of school on Friday, Aug. 30.

Actually, middle and senior high school students were in their respective buildings throughout last week for registration and to pick up their class schedules.

The Marshall, Adams, Stevenson and Franklin middle schools will start one or two days later.

During Monday's registration, Glenn principal Neil Thomas said one big change for students for the new school year will be a $25 parking permit charge to pay for extra parking lot security for more traffic control and to reduce other problems.

Lorraine Brickman, an assistant principal, said the school's student council is getting more involved this term with community service projects.

WESTLAND SCHOOLS

An example was the student council members joining with school secretaries to help register students. The council also prepared informational packets for the school's 2,100 students.

A "welcome" banner was also displayed in the school's main lobby to make the incoming freshman, the Class of '00, feel more comfortable.

The school board Monday increased the price of hot lunches by 10 cents for the new term.

That brings the price for elementary schools to $1.65 a day and from $1.85 to $2.10 for secondary schools.

The administration said the dime hike was necessary to keep up with increased costs of the food program.

At the same time, the board eliminated the daily breakfast program which served 72 people a day and incurred a deficit of $30,000 a year.

Another major change is the staggered starting times for elementary schools and different lengths of lunch periods.

Hamilton, Kettering, Patchin and Wildwood schools will start at 9 a.m. with a 60-minute lunch.

Hicks, Jefferson-Barns, Lincoln, Taft-Galloway and Vandenberg will also start at 9 a.m., but with a 30-minute lunch period.

Beginning at 8:30 a.m. with a 60-minute lunch period are Edison, Elliott, Graham, Hoover, Madison, Roosevelt, Schweitzer and Walker schools.

Middle schools will run from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with the two senior highs to have a 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. schedule.

In the Livonia school district, which serves the northern section of Westland, school will start for middle school seventh-graders and senior high ninth-graders next Monday. The other grades will report for classes the next day. Elementary schools will also open Monday.

Bus schedules are posted at each building.

PLYMOUTH-CANTON SCHOOL BOARD AGENDA

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education meets at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 27 at Field Elementary, 1000 S. Haggerty Road in Canton.

After roll call, the pledge of allegiance, and approval of minutes, Superintendent Charles Little will report on enrollment and staffing; a request to change a deed, and the harassment complaint procedure.

Citizens will speak on non-agenda items.

■ The school board will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Field Elementary School, 1000 S. Haggerty in Canton Township.

Board requests and reports will precede action items, which include bills for payment, new hires, leaves and resignations; authorization for the superintendent to sign a Bilingual Students Services contract with Northville Public Schools, and readmittance of an expelled student.

Citizen participation follows.

Discussion will take place on the Long-Range Planning Committee's charge.

A closed session will follow to discuss negotiations.

Chamber outing makes history

The tally isn't in yet, but organizers of the 1996 Canton Chamber of Commerce Golf Outing believe history has been made.

"When the final accounting is complete, we expect that we will have set a record for the single largest fundraising event in Canton Chamber of Commerce history," said Mike Gerou, golf committee chair.

The event Aug. 13 was sold out with 144 participating golfers at Fellows Creek Golf Course.

The outing is one of the many chamber traditions that allows business people to give up a day of work to enjoy the game, renew old acquaintenances and make new ones, said Carleigh Barnes, chamber director.

Part of the tradition includes a traveling gold cup trophy to the overall winner of the tournament, which went to the members of the Fellows Creek Golf Course, Men's Team Flight A Division.

Gold sponsors for the event included First of America Bank and Blackwell Ford. The Grand Prize sponsor for the 1996 outing was NBD Bank.

New money man sees job as customer service

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

■ 'Government is the original customer-service organization.
Tony Minghine
—budget, finance chief

Canton's new finance and budget director, Tony Minghine, says the core of his job is to provide service to other township departments and to the public.

"Finance is a service organization, and we're here to serve the public and the other departments," he said. "If there's a financial issue (in another department) we should be out there assisting them dealing with that. If a resident comes in with a problem, it's incumbent on us to help them.

"Government is the original customer-service organization."

Minghine, 32, started his $67,000/year job July 15 after three years with Wayne County's Department of the Environment.

Township Supervisor Tom Yack chose Minghine from a group of finalists that were selected from 80 applicants.

There was some controversy surrounding the new job, created Jan. 9 by township trustees, because longtime Chief Financial Officer John Spencer wasn't handed the job. Some thought the intent was to leave Spencer without a job, but he was kept on in a new position at the same pay, $64,000/year, working under Minghine.

"John and I are so far working together real well," Minghine said. "From what I've seen so far, John is doing an excellent job."

Presently, Spencer's highest priority is to assemble the township's 1997 budget. It must be ready for the trustees' approval in the fall.

Minghine has lacked sufficient time to become intimately familiar with Canton's financial condition, but he knows enough to say that the township is in good shape.

Although Canton is in debt to pay off the construction of Fellows Creek and Pheasant Run golf courses, "the debt for a community this size is insignificant, really," Minghine said. "In terms of that issue, Canton is in real good shape."

Before he came here, Minghine was the deputy director of the county's Land Resource Management Division in the Department of the Environment.

Minghine also worked as controller for the city of Melvindale from 1986 to 1992. While there he prepared a $6.5 million budget, negotiated city labor contracts, established a downtown development authority and ran the health and liability insurance programs for the city.

Unlike Melvindale, Canton is growing faster than any other community in the Detroit area. More than 1,000 housing permits were issued in 1995, and the pace is not expected to slacken this year.

"I think Canton has a lot of opportunities due to the growth," Minghine said. "The challenge is going to be to manage that growth responsibly. And from what I've seen so far, that is the approach (elected officials) appear to be taking."

Some Canton people have begun to discuss the option of cityhood for the township, figuring that residents would then be more firmly in control of the community's destiny.

"At this point it's just talk," Minghine said. "I haven't been involved in serious discussions about it."

He pointed out that there's no requirement for a growing township to become a city and noted that Redford and Clinton townships, in Wayne and Macomb counties, respectively, have survived without declaring cityhood.

Still, "it's probably a question that will always hang over Canton's head," Minghine said. "This is one issue you could take either side of the argument on."

Although most communities' millage rates rise when they become cities, Minghine said that Canton's millage levy wouldn't necessarily have to rise.

An Allen Park resident, Minghine is a divorced father of two. He plays softball twice a week, albeit with younger men.

"I'm the old guy on the team," he said. "All the guys I play with are in their mid 20s."

Ironically, at township hall, he's one of the youngest employees, more than 10 years younger than the other two men at his level, Administrative and Community Services Director Dan Durack and Municipal Services Director Aaron Machnik.

Consultant: Schools were business without plans

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

■ 'There is a sense among some respondents that values, like building responsibility and honesty, are important, but the responsibility of the family, and not the schools.'
David Castlegrant
—Consultant

A Plymouth-Canton Community Schools consultant drove home a point school officials have begun to address: "We were a business without a plan," said Superintendent Charles Little.

"We don't have a long-range plan yet, but we are working at one in a consistent way."

David Castlegrant & Associates surveyed focus groups and 1,500 residents at large on an array of school-related topics.

The results were summarized for the Board of Education by David Castlegrant and Stephen Ball Tuesday night.

Among their findings and recommendations:

- "Parents were a strong voice in the survey. It's important that their thoughts are considered for future plans."
- "Class size was a critical issue in the study."
- "The MEAP test seems to be unpopular."
- "The district will have to survey again in a year or 18 months in an effort to try to determine what the trends and attitudes are."

Board president Mark Horvath said the board will study the findings and revisit them at its Aug. 27 meeting. "This is the beginning, not the end," he said.

Castlegrant's firm authored the survey, formed focus groups, conducted the survey and reported on it for a $21,900 fee.

Questions concerned the school district's curriculum; extra-curricular activities; image; leadership; fiscal priorities; facilities; and services.

Respondents also were asked how success should be measured; how employees should be kept current; how accessible schools should be; what type of support is needed for teaching and learning; and what skills students should have.

They also were asked what can be done to improve the district, and whether codes of conduct should be established.

Twenty-one percent of the sample, or 308 residents, returned surveys. Of those, 47 percent were parents with children in Plymouth-Canton schools.

"Educational levels indicate a highly educated population, with 90 percent reporting post-high-school education," reported Castlegrant. "Seventy-two percent of respondents indicated a family income of greater than $30,000 and less than $105,000.

Respondents primarily live in Canton Township (55 percent) followed by Plymouth Township (32 percent), Plymouth (12 percent) and other, (1 percent.) Seventy-four percent have lived in the district for three years or more."

Respondents were asked whether they'd spend an extra $500 per year on smaller classes; more technology; a longer school year or day; more counselors; expanded extra-curricular activities; teacher training; specialized skill training; and new school buildings.

Just one line item — smaller classes — received a majority of yeses.

"Parents as a group have demonstrated that they are more interested in the operations of PCCS. This is the primary group for the district to pay attention to," Castlegrant reported.

"PCCS personnel are well-thought of in the community, with 66 percent saying school personnel are dedicated professionals.

"Curriculum issues were a concern," he added. "Respondents feel that a standard curriculum should be used, and that parents should be given the curriculum at the beginning of the year."

Respondents said the MEAP test and other standard scores are not thought to be useful in measuring success. "Reliance on this test in forming curricula is not a strategy that is likely to be supported by the community," said Castlegrant.

"Curricular items to focus on would include communication skills, building a sense of honesty and responsibility and the ability to function in society. There is a sense among some respondents that values, like building responsibility and honesty, are important, but the responsibility of the family, and not the schools."

One respondent is not likely to become more involved with the schools. Asked what that would require, he or she wrote, "A return to my youth."

CLARIFICATION

A story in the August 19 edition of the Canton Observer inaccurately stated the expenditures of the fire department are expected to increase by $5 million in 1996-97. It should have stated the estimated increase was $500,000 in the 1996-97 fiscal year. Supervisor Tom Yack was misspoken as referring to the growing township draining the township's reserve fund. The police and fire budget has its own reserve fund.

and stuck to the wall.

"It's like stepping back in time when you walk through that door," said regular customer Peggy Farell. "No charge-card apparatus, no computerized cash register, just friendly service."

The 1950s vintage register has a balky cash drawer, but Foege manages to pull it out and make change.

She and her sisters, Mary Perlongo and Rita Thompson, "borrowed" the register from the Parkway Veterinary Clinic when they took over the business in 1977.

Have the vets ever said she can keep it?

"I'm sure they would if I asked them," Foege said. "I don't think they want it back. They weren't using it. It was up in an attic."

The store was established by Charles Hewer in the 1930s as far as Foege knows. Her Uncle Ralph Burch bought it from Hewer roughly 25 years ago when Mrs. Hewer entered a nursing home.

Then in 1977 the sisters took over from Uncle Ralph. "I was out of work at the time," Foege said. "So I thought I'd give it a shot."

Nineteen years later she's still there, although her sisters have married, had children and left the store, except in May when they return to sell flowers.

Perlongo, Thompson and their children may also be found behind the counter when Foege is away on vacation. Mildred Foege, the three sisters' mother, helps her daughter, Cathy, by watching the store every day at lunch time.

Most of the time you can find Foege and Taffy in the store 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

It's not a particularly lucrative business, and Foege "won't become a millionaire," but she's comfortable.

The property is zoned residential, so the Country Place is technically a "non-conforming use" and can't be expanded or changed in any significant way.

The former Canton Chamber of Commerce president doesn't advertise to any great extent, depending on "word of mouth" to sustain her clientele.

Yet customers may advertise free by attaching their flyers and 3x5 cards to the wooden shelves with push pins.

Peggy Farell, a regular customer, finds the Country Store one of the most pleasant places she visits around town.

"It's one of the only places I can find sunflower seeds without the shells," she said. "I bought my suet feeder from there, and the birds just love it. You can just find anything you want to in relation to animals and birds."

Summit closes as of today

The Summit on the Park community center will close for a week Aug. 26-Sept. 2 to clean and spiff up.

"This is very typical for community centers," said Debbie Bilbrey-Honsowetz. "You get a high volume of traffic here. You can't effectively clean around people. This is the best time to do it. It's the first week that kids are back at school."

The closing will herald the facility's first annual maintenance check. Some of the work includes resurfacing the wood floors, cleaning carpets and some painting.

Voters to decide hotel, car rental tax

BY BETH SUNDRLA JACHMAN
STAFF WRITER

Voters get to decide in November whether to impose an excise tax on hotel rooms and rental cars in Wayne County to help pay for a project to build two stadiums in Detroit.

A plan was unveiled last week to build a domed sports and entertainment complex in Detroit next to a previously planned new stadium for the Detroit Tigers baseball team. Under the new plan, however, the Tigers stadium would be built on the east side of Woodward rather than the west.

The domed stadium would house the Detroit Lions football team, which currently plays at the Silverdome in Pontiac.

The ballot question will ask voters for permission to put a 1 percent tax on hotel rooms and a 2 percent tax on rental cars.

During a specially called meeting Thursday, Wayne County commissioners voted 12-3 to put the proposal on the Nov. 5 general election ballot. Local commissioners split along party lines in the vote. Commissioner Michelle Plawecki, D-Dearborn Heights, and Vice Chair Kay Beard, D-Westland, voted in favor, while Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, and Bruce Patterson, R-Canton Township, voted against.

After hours of discussion and questions, commissioners voted on four aspects of the project. Besides voting to put the tax proposal on the ballot, commissioners approved the Memorandum of Understanding between the city of Detroit, Wayne County, the Detroit Tigers and the Detroit Lions. They also approved the ordinance language to levy the excise taxes and the Articles of Incorporation forming a Detroit/Wayne County Stadium Authority.

"We cleared another hurdle, but we've got a long way to go," deputy county executive Mike Duggan said after the meeting, adding he was glad to see it approved by such a strong vote. The next step is forming the stadium authority, which will immediately begin "nailing down" the land acquisition, Duggan said.

Under the agreement, in the next 10 weeks the authority must have land acquisition costs nailed down and within budget, and the Lions must have $50 million in corporate donations to meet a Nov. 1 deadline.

Patterson raised concerns that the ballot language on taxing hotel guests only says "transient guests" and that people living in hotel rooms would be subject to the tax, which has been referred to as a tourist tax.

Also, the tax on car rentals would affect Wayne County residents as many local residents rent cars when having their own cars serviced, he said.

"This is absolutely an excise tax, and a tax is a tax is a tax," Patterson said, adding he opposes new taxes.

As for the $50 million in corporate donations the Lions organization is to raise, corporations only have a certain amount per year to donate and donations to the stadium project could dry up donations to other causes such as community foundations or colleges, Patterson said.

McCotter also opposed the proposal. "While we call it a tourist tax there will still be Wayne County residents who will be affected by this tax," McCotter said.

McCotter said he also opposes $20 million for the project coming out of the Northville Township property sale. McCotter also represents Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

Plawecki and Beard voted in favor, but Plawecki moved to have the ballot language and the ordinance language reconsidered so commissioners could vote on them separately. The commissibn voted on them together the first time.

"I voted yes to put it on the ballot," Plawecki said, but she voted against the ordinance to impose the tax saying it is premature. "I'm not in favor of raising taxes," she said.

While she voted to let the voters decide, she said she does have concerns about the stadium proposal. "What are going to be the benefits to western Wayne County?" she said. "Are all of our hotels going to be filled up?"

Plawecki also represents Livonia east of Middlebelt and Redford Township.

Beard, who also represents Garden City, added language at the end of the proposed ordinance that it wouldn't go into effect unless the voters approved the ballot language. "It does underscore that we are not putting a tax on the people," she said. "The people will be voting."

"I think the voters really have the right to determine whether or not they support it," Beard said.

"I think having the two stadiums next to each other is a pretty exciting proposition," she said. The project will spark construction and permanent jobs, she said.

Bill McMaster, state chairman volunteer of Michigan Taxpayers United, criticized the special meeting and the commission's vote. The public hearing on the proposal was held during the committee of the whole meeting, which began around 10 a.m. instead of during regular session. The commission was scheduled to go into regular session at 1 p.m. but didn't adjourn from committee of the whole until 2:55 p.m. and didn't reconvene in regular session until 3:55 p.m.

The vote on the stadium came at about 5:10 p.m., and McMaster wasn't permitted to speak until afterward.

"Had we known we had public comment there would have been a thousand of us here," McMaster said.

Commission chairman Ricardo Solomon defended the meeting and said the meeting had been advertised in accordance with the Open Meetings Act.

KEEP YOUR GUARD UP!
In recognition of the fact that injuries to teeth and the soft tissues of the mouth occur all too often (and unnecessarily) in sports, mouth guards are required equipment in amateur football, lacrosse, and hockey. And, if the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry has its way, mouth guards will be required for such school sports as basketball, baseball, and softball, as well as for such seemingly "safe" sports as gymnastics. This recommendation is very much in keeping with the dental profession's firm belief in preventive behavior's ability to stave-off dental disease and trauma. The least expensive type of mouth-guard protection comes in the form of a boil-and-bite model available from sporting goods stores.
The dentist, however, offers custom-made mouth guards that both fit better and can be designed to accommodate braces. Even this more expensive form of protection costs less than fixing loose or knocked-out teeth.
At LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES, we recommend the use of mouth guards. Let us help you keep your naturally beautiful smile. We want to provide you and your family with the best dental care possible. Prevention - brushing, flossing, and regular professional cleanings and checkups - is still the best road to dental health. Our office is located at 19171 Merriman Road. Please call 478-2110 to schedule an appointment. Smiles are our business.

Springhouse™ ASSISTED LIVING
Active days. Discussion groups where every voice is important. Gardening where friendships bloom as well as flowers. And daily routines where people are secure knowing that trained, caring staff is nearby to offer assistance if necessary.
That's life at Springhouse, an assisted living facility for those who need extra help in their day-to-day routine, with things like dressing, bathing, and taking medications, but still want to enjoy life to its fullest. We customize care for our residents, giving them only the services they need or request. This helps them remain as independent as possible.
Friendship is one of the hallmarks of the Springhouse experience. In fact, it's never been easier for some of our residents as they are free to join each other for activities like walking and lectures. But residents can be on their own, too, setting their own routines. If they want to enjoy a quiet meal in their own apartment, they can. In short, residents make the choices that let them maintain control of their own lives.
We've designed Springhouse to be a safe and secure environment, with licensed health care professionals, staff and personal care assistants just seconds away—24 hours a day. So while residents are leading secure, active lives, their loved ones enjoy the peace of mind that comes from such special care—and Manor HealthCare's 35 year tradition of excellence in health care.

but no one wants to be known as the cow chip capital. It's the biggest part of Canton's history that people would rather forget," he said.

Winkel grew up with rural Canton. He was born in a two-story building on Canton Center Road in an apartment above a grocery store owned by his family. The Sunlight Plaza shopping center is now located there.

Growing up he worked for farmers hoeing corn and picking beans. At the age of 12, he drove a pickup truck delivering groceries from his uncle's store. Traffic in the soon-to-be suburban community wasn't much of a concern.

'It's been a nice 25 years I'm going to miss it. Canton is an excellent place to work and, especially to live.'

Art Winkel
—retiring fire marshal

In 1956 Winkel began his career as a firefighter at the age of 22. There was no other job he dreamed of having, he said. Winkel started out with the Inkster Fire Department, and shortly thereafter for the city of Rouge.

But by 1966, he decided to move back to the "country" to raise his three children, Tye, Bryan and Laurie. Winkel and his wife, Shirley, returned to rural Canton and built a house on Hanford Street, where they still live today. The house was built on three acres of property originally owned by his grandfather.

By 1972 the volunteer Canton firefighter joined the ranks of the first full-time fire department. There were nine firefighters in all. In 1978 the township was rapidly expanding, creating a need for the township's first fire prevention program. He accepted the new position.

As fire marshal, Winkel conducts annual inspections on businesses, renews licenses, reviews new buildings under construction and tests various fire devices to make sure they're working.

"Through the years the business people have been nice to work for," said Winkel. "We may have had a difference of opinion at times, but we've gotten along just fine."

The fire department has grown to 37 members with an expanded EMT division. A new headquarters is planned for the civic center to replace Fire Station No. 1 at Canton Center and Cherry Hill, built circa 1949.

"Its been a nice 25 years I'm going to miss it. Canton is an excellent place to work and , especially to live," he said.

Winkel and his wife of 42 years plan to stay in Canton, although they may downsize to a house with less grass to cut, Winkel said. His three adult children live in surrounding areas. The Winkels are awaiting their sixth grandchild.

CITY OF PLYMOUTH AND CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH

The Charter Township of Plymouth and the City of Plymouth met on August 21, 1996, to continue their discussion about future of recreation in the community. The Township was represented by Supervisor Kathleen Keen McCarthy, Trustee Chuck Curmi and Finance Director Rosemary Harvey. The City was represented by Mayor Ron Loiselle and City Manager Steve Walters.

Mr. Edgar Johns from Human Synergistics International was present to discuss the process of conducting a community recreation needs survey. A survey could provide information to the Township and City governments about what recreation needs exist in the community and also the degree of interest in and support for current programs by local residents. It was agreed that the company would submit a proposal for conducting such a survey in the next few days, for consideration at the September board meetings. Information about the process for conducting such a survey will be prepared for the next joint meeting, to be held within the next four weeks.

Plymouth YMCA Executive Director Joanne McCarthy and Vice President Thomas LaBeau were also present at the meeting to share the future plans of the YMCA and how they might be coordinated with the Plymouth community's other recreation programs and resources. Examples of cooperation in other communities between local YMCA's and local government recreation programs were discussed. It was agreed that the YMCA could play an important role in meeting the community's future recreation needs, and that they should participate with the City-Township committee on a regular basis.

The next meeting of the City-Treasurer recreation committee is scheduled for September 12th. Further work on the needs survey will be a primary topic of the meeting.

PLYMOUTH CHARTER TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 83.77

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDINANCE NO. 83 BY AMENDING ARTICLE XIII, VP VEHICULAR PARKING DISTRICT, OF SAID ORDINANCE RELATED TO USES SUBJECT TO SPECIAL CONDITIONS

THE TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

Part I. The Zoning Ordinance No. 83 of the Plymouth Charter Township, is hereby amended by amending Article XIII, VP Vehicular Parking District, Section 13.2, Uses Subject to Special Conditions which presently ends with item 1.
Section 13.2, Uses Subject to Special Conditions is hereby proposed to be amended by adding item 2., which reads as follows:
2. Storage lots for new passenger vehicles as an accessory to passenger vehicle dealerships, subject to the following:
(a) The storage lot shall be used solely for the parking of new, untagged passenger vehicles. Vehicles stored shall be limited to automobiles, vans, mini-vans, pick-up trucks and similar vehicles. Commercial vehicles, semi-tractors and trailers, and construction equipment shall not be permitted.
(b) Permitted vehicles may be parked for periods of one (1) day or more.
(c) No sales shall be conducted from the storage lot, nor shall customers be shown vehicles on the lot.
(d) There shall be no vehicle cleaning, washing, repair or servicing of any kind conducted on the storage lot. No loudspeakers shall be permitted on the site.
(e) The parking layout for stored vehicles may be permitted to vary from the minimum dimensional requirements of Section 20.2.13., subject to the approval of the Township Fire Department and the Planning Commission.
(f) No vehicles shall be mounted on ramps or stored above ground level.
(g) The vehicle storage lot shall be completely screened from adjacent residential uses or districts, and shall be buffered from view from public right-of-way. A six (6) foot high solid masonry screening wall with interior planting strip, in accordance with Section 22.8.1., shall be provided. Such six foot wall shall be located along the rear and side lot lines.
A four (4) foot brick or brick-formed masonry wall or other ornamental fence if approved by the Planning Commission shall be provided parallel to the front lot line. No wall shall be located closer to the street than the front setback line applicable to the premises immediately adjacent along said street. The Planning Commission may approve variation in this wall location based upon surrounding conditions, however, in no instance shall such wall setback be no less than ten (10) feet. Front lot line walls shall also be subject to an approved landscape plan.
(h) The front setback area between the front lot line and the four foot screening wall or fence shall be landscaped to buffer the storage lot and present an attractive appearance from the sidewalk and public right-of-way. A minimum ten (10) foot wide planting strip shall be established. The planting strip shall consist of a minimum of (1) deciduous shade tree for every thirty (30) linear feet of frontage, and grass. Street trees shall also be provided as approved by the Planning Commission.
(i) Lighting for the vehicle storage area shall not exceed 12 feet in height. All lighting shall be focused downward and shielded so as not to glare off-site or into the public right-of-way.
(j) A plan for site security shall be submitted for review by the Planning Commission.
(k) No off-site storage lot shall be used to satisfy off-street parking requirements for the principal use.
(l) There shall be no loading or unloading of new vehicles at the storage lot. All vehicles deliveries shall be made to the principal site and vehicles transferred to the off-site storage lot. The vehicle travel/transfer route between the principal site and the storage lot shall not use residential streets, and shall be designated on the site plan for approval by the Planning Commission.
(m) Signage shall be limited to one (1) name plate or address sign only, not to exceed two (2) square feet in area.

Part II. CONFLICTING PROVISIONS REPEALED. Any Ordinance or parts of Ordinance in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Part III. EFFECTIVE DATE. The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to take effect on September 20, 1996.

Part IV. ADOPTION. The Ordinance was adopted by the Township Board of Charter Township of Plymouth by authority of Act 184 of the Public Acts of Michigan, 1949, at a meeting duly called and held on the 20th day of August, 1996, and ordered to be given publication in the manner prescribed by law.

1990 census count of 57,047. Instead, the revenue will amount to an added annual appropriation of approximately $90,000.

This year Canton received $4.6 million in state shared revenue, which is a subsidy each community receives each year based on its population.

Officials plan on spending approximately $115,500 for consultant Patricia Loder, president of Information Management Consulting Inc. ,and Joanne Ladwig, who works with Loder. The board of trustees will vote on the expenditure Tuesday, Aug. 27. The consultanting company was the lowest bidder.

"The payback will be one-and-a-half years, but the decennial census done every 10 years doesn't kick in until 2002. That means we'll still have five years of benefit from it, assuming we make the 15 percent," said Clerk Terry Bennett.

'There are 36 communities (taking a mid-decade census.) We'll probably get the most, but that's a lot of us at the trough.'

Tony Minghine
—Canton budget and finance director

If Canton is unable to show a 15 percent increase in its population, the mid-decade census would be futile. The township needs to account for an additional 8,546 people to reach the mark.

In 1996 the Senate Finance Committee appropriated $459,000 for communities that grew by 15 percent according to its mid-decade census. Last year Novi received an additional $70,000, said Finance Director Tony Minghine. It is unknown how much the Legislature will appropriate for 1997, but if the proportional amount is similar to Novi's, Canton is expected to get at least $90,000, said Minghine.

"There are 36 communities (taking a mid- decade census.) We'll probably get the most, but that's a lot of us at the trough," he added.

The township decided to hire a consultant instead of doing the census itself due the time it would take to hire 75 enumerators, coordinating the effort with the Secretary of State and liability concerns.

Enumerators should be out by late winter or early spring in hopes of getting the census certified by the spring, said Minghine.

there's always something special at parisian

Fred just didn't want to be bothered. But then I didn't want to be a widow.

Too many men don't bother with prostate exams.
Fact is, it's no bother. The exam takes only a few minutes of your time. Once every two years if you're in your 40s; once a year if you're over 50 or have a family history of prostate cancer.
Regular screening can detect prostate cancer early, while it is still curable.
A few minutes of your time. It's really no bother. And your family will thank you for it.
Fred didn't want to take the time for a prostate check. "I feel fine," he'd say.
By the time he didn't feel fine, it was too late. The cancer had spread.
With regular screenings, Fred's cancer probably would have been caught in the early stages. And he'd probably still be here.
But Fred didn't want to be bothered.

Flipper fun: The dolphin pen, $6, at Natural Wonders, comes complete with dolphin squeels, each time you click it.

Make a point with your pen

BY JANITA GAULZETTI
SPECIAL WRITER

No matter what kind of student you are, there's a pen to match your personality type.

As marketing director at Lakeside mall in Sterling Heights, I spent an afternoon shopping for the write stuff before deciding to pen this column. Here's a quick course by Lakeside merchants on how to match your student personality traits with the appropriate writing instrument for school.

The kid at heart

No need to fool around, yours is the Mickey Mouse pen from the Disney Store. Made from carved wood, the extra fat pen is trimmed with tiny Mickey silhouettes in three places. It's $65.

The heavy notetaker

The college profs can give long-winded lectures that require lots of note taking, so pamper yourself with the Sensa pen. It has gel pads where your thumb and forefinger grasp the pen shaft. It's designed to prevent fatigue for those who need to take copious notes or write lengthy history essays. As an added bonus, the pressurized pen can write upside down. Available in silver for $50, or solid copper for $125 at Natural Wonders.

The well-rounded athlete/scholar

Just as you are multi-talented, so is the Quad Pen by Franklin Quest. It writes in four different colors: black ink, blue ink, red ink or pencil. It's perfect for jotting notes in one color, making corrections in red and penciling in the football schedule on your calendar. The pen case comes in marble blue, green, black or burgundy. It's $39 at Franklin Quest.

The corporate climber

Success is important to you, and the Mont Blanc pen is recognized worldwide as a symbol of success in the business world. The best and the brightest gravitate to this pen. It's white-capped pen tip is modeled after the white snow-capped mountain by the same name in Germany. Prices start at $123 at Bentley's Luggage.

The intellectual

Do you identify with tortoise framed eyeglasses or take a low-risk, slow and steady approach to life? Perhaps your perfect pen pal is the tortoise shell ball point by Calibri. Replete with gold accents and a gold pocket clip, it has a twist closure to prevent pocket smudges of ink. It's $39.95 at JB Robinson Jewelers.

Future environmentalist

Young tree huggers will appreciate how the Orca whale pen makes the sound of an Ocra whale each time you click the pen to write. Or its sister dolphin pen makes dolphin noises. The pens come on their own satin neckwords to wear when not in use. They're $6 at Natural Wonders.

The fraternity guy

Your fraternity brothers will probably want to borrow this unusual pen, but just say "later." Churchill's wooden golf pen has a tiny golf club for its clasp, a wooden pen shaft and comes in its own matching wooden case. It's $16.

The future CIA recruit

Middle school boys and girls who love secret messages and mysteries will love the Talk Boy or Talk Girl pens by Tiger. Popularized a year ago by the movie Home Alone II, they're still hot sellers. The pens record your voice and will play it back at different speeds. The pens make six different sound effects, like sirens and whistles that will amuse your friends and drive the substitute teacher buggy. They're $25 at Kay Bee Toys.

The moody type

Without a doubt, your match is the mood pen that changes color to reflect your inner feelings. It responds to your hand temperature, to see if you're uncontrollable (purple), aggressive (blue) or another mood altogether. It comes with its own chart that matches colors with moods. The ballpoint pen with twist closure is $6 at Natural Wonders.

Discounters get the most school sales

A national retail survey says parents will spend about $350 per child this back-to-school shopping season.

According to the American Express Retail Index, which monitors consumer retail spending trends, and is based on a survey of 1,000 consumers nationwide, parents will spend an average of $363 per child for back-to-school items this year. This is an increase of 12-percent, compared to 1995 figures.

The survey also revealed that nearly one in five parents (18-percent) say they plan to spend $500 or more for back-to-school gear.

Nearly half, 49-percent of parents, will use a combination of cash (65-percent), checks (16-percent) and credit cards (15-percent) to pay for such back-to-school items as clothing, classroom supplies, textbooks and electronics.

Parents say children will also contribute to the budget, pitching in an average of 19-percent from their own savings.

Surprisingly, and contrary to last year's back-to-school survey, results showed that college boys are dramatically more style-conscious than college girls (547-percent versus 28-percent).

The survey also found that nearly half of all students are considered style-conscious by their parents. On a scale of 1 to 10, with "10" being extremely style-conscious, and "1" being not at all style-conscious, 45-percent of parents gave kids an "8" or higher.

Parents report that high-schoolers are the most brand-conscious about their clothing although elementary and college students also demonstrated strong preferences for certain brands.

The top brand names among all three groups of students were Levi's: 45-percent, followed by Nike: 39- percent, The Gap: 17-percent, Reebok: 16-percent, and Guess: 13-percent. Designer labels are also popular, with Tommy Hilfiger, Calvin Klein and Polo/Ralph Lauren each preferred by 5-percent of back-to-schoolers.

Wardrobe basics top the list of most-shopped for items in August, although clothing and general school supplies were each cited by 87-percent of respondents as the top two items on their back-to-school shopping lists.

Clothing will account for more than half, 58 percent, of the back-to-school shopping budget. Supplies will account for only 21 percent.

Top clothing items are back-to-school basics including jeans (61-percent), shirts and tops (57-percent), underwear (30-percent), sneakers (26-percent) and non-denim pants (20-percent).

Parents have more influence over where to shop for back-to-school (63-percent versus 31-percent) and their kids have more influence over what items are purchased (50-percent versus 39-percent).

Nearly two-thirds (64-percent) of parents will shop with their kids, with parents of grade-schoolers doing the most shopping at discount department stores, (42-percent), and parents of high schoolers favoring malls (40-percent).

WHERE AMERICA SHOPS FOR BACK-TO-SCHOOL

According to the American Express Retail Index on back-to-school shopping, more than one third (35%) of back-to-school shoppers plan to shop at discount department stores, making it the top pick among retailers.

Upscale family dining at a new mall kitchen

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

With the hope of offering upscale families a nutritious, delicious place to eat, two federal prosecutors left the courtroom for the kitchen, founding California Pizza Kitchen in 1985 in Los Angeles.

Eleven years, 77 restaurants, and $160-million worth of pizzas later, Larry Flax and Rick Rosenfield brought CPK to Michigan – their 78th restaurant is now open in the Somerset Collection North in Troy.

"Forbes-Cohen (Somerset's developers) have been trying to get us here for many years," Flax said, in town for an opening benefit for the Karmanos Cancer Institute. "We're in their Palm Beach Garden shopping center and it's been a great experience."

The trademark of all CPK restaurants is a wood-burning oven which bakes the pizza in three minutes. The short cooking time under intense heat preserves the natural, fresh flavors and characters of the toppings.

And what a variety of toppings – barbecued chicken, Thai chicken, Peking duck, bacon-lettuce-and-tomato, shrimp pesto, tostadas and of course, pepperoni, sausage and mushrooms.

Strict vegetarians will appreciate the custom catering, no cheese, no meat, no problem.

In addition to pizzas, the restaurant serves a variety of salads, soups, pastas and desserts, beer, wine and liquor.

"We basically reinvented pizza," said Rosenfield, with a wide grin. "But historically speaking, in Italy they made pizzas like ours before they ever had tomatoes, or sauce, that's the American touch."

News of special events of interest to shoppers is included in this calendar. Send promotion information to: Mall & Mainstreets, c/oBirmingham Eccentric, 805 East Maple, 48009, or fax (810) 644-1314. The deadline is Wednesday at 5 p.m. for publication on Monday.

WESTLAND MALL HOSTS LITERACY PROGRAM

Westland Shopping Center is partnering with the city and the soon-to-open library, for a Back To School promotion to stress the importance of reading. (The city's first library, The William P. Faust Library, will open in November.

From Sept. 11-15, the mall will hold a20 to 30-percent off shoe sale where customers can receive $5 off new shoes from participating stores if they donate a used book (for kids or adults) at the time of purchase.

From Aug. 26 through Sept. 30, families can sign a pledge book in east court near Customer Service, promising to read a book. The pledge book will be sent to Gov. Engler in support of National Literacy Month.

All books will be donated to First Step of Western Wayne County, a program addressing domestic violence.

For further details contact the shopping center at Wayne and Warren, (313) 425-5001.

OUTLET MALL HIRES MANAGER

The factory-outlet center planned for Howell Township, Kensington Valley Shops, now has a manager, Kimberly Dane. Dane comes to the project with more than 14 years in mall management – including manager of the Universal Mall in Warren. The mall is being developed by Fru Con of .St. Louis and Howard & Rice of Farmington Hills.

Kensington Valley will be a 250,000-square foot development on M-59 at I-96. Phase I features 65 shops and a food court. Construction is in progress for a November opening.

The center plans a Job Fair in September, for the details, call (810) 932-1700.

NEIMAN'S HOSTS: ART OF FASHION

Neiman Marcus will present its Best of Fall under a tent in the Somerset Collection South, Tuesday, Sept. 17 at 11:30 a.m. to benefit Orchard Children's Services. Guests will be treated to a light lunch after the show, "The Art of Fashion". Tickets are $50 for friends and $100 patron. For reservations call 810-433-8600.

SOMERSET RADIO

W-SOM has debuted, 89.7 on your FM dial, with news about the Somerset Collection and services available therein. "It's just like the broadcasts on the approach to the San Diego Zoo or Disney World," one customer noted.

And if you hear voices as you leave the parking deck for the mall, it's just another broadcast system reminding you about the level on which you've parked. Somerset North and South have extended business hours: Monday-Friday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays on the South 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sundays noon to 5 p.m.

On the North: Saturdays 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Sundays 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

T.J. MAXX OFFERS DESIGNER COLLECTION

The WilliSmith Collection of fashions carried exclusively by T. J. Maxx stores in Bloomfield Hills and Ann Arbor will now be carried in the downtown Farmington store. The collection is housed in its own boutique, featuring denim and twill pants, over-sized denim shirts, zipper jackets, peacoats, corduroy jumpers and the techno silver look – silver and cream hood cropped sweatshirts and drawstring pants. Additional merchandise will be added when the weather turns cooler.

This collection marks the first time a top designer's work has been featured by an off-priced retailer.

Items in the collection are priced between $19.99-$69.99.

HAIR-A-THON A SUCCESS

Andrew Dagher of Carnival Cuts at Twelve Oaks in Novi, reported that more than 70 people came in for $10 haircuts recently, to raise money for Children's Hospital. This was the first year for the event which may be repeated in 1997.

The International Council of Shopping Centers' website on the Internet designed by the Annis Group of Southfield, received "Five Star Staus" from the Pike Net Review, a national provider of commercial real estate information. The site is located at http://www.icsc.org/.

In their review of the ICSCNET site, Pike Net wrote, "while some parts are accessible to members only, most of the site is available to the public. Of particular interest is the database and research reports on the industry."

The site was created in May 1996. Shopping center-related companies will be able to tie into the ICSCNET through hyperlinks at a cost of $600 per year. Plans call for the addition of employment opportunities and more retail publications.

DETROIT TEENS LAUNCH CITY-STYLE SALSA

A new product from Detroit's empowerment zone is available at the Nino Salvaggio International Marketplace, South Boulevard and Rochester Road in Troy. The revenue generated from the sauce will be used to grow vegetables and make more salsa. Salvaggio donated the produce for the original batch.

CHEF LARRY JANES

August brings harvest requests

Your calls and comments reflect the seasons. Last month's requests leaned toward outdoor cooking while this month's requests concern gardens, and fresh Michigan fruits and vegetables.

My tomato plants are skyrocketing, and loaded with reddening globes, and my basil has bushed out beyond belief. I hope you too are enjoying the fruits of your garden labors.

■ Linda Rice of Plymouth called and raved about the fruited melon soup she recently enjoyed while dining at Matt Prentice's rave new restaurant, Relish in Farmington Hills. She was hoping I might have a good recipe. Well Linda, I do have a favorite recipe, and it came from a very old cookbook. We make it all the time in the Janes Gang kitchen, especially during summer when melons are sweet, ripe and plentiful. You can use honey, cassaba, Crenshaw or any other firm melon (not watermelon) or combine two for an even better, complex flavor.

CANTALOUPE SOUP

1 large cantaloupe, skinned, seeded and diced
5 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons sugar
1 teaspoon fresh grated lemon rind
dash powdered ginger
pinch salt
2 1/2 cups half and half, heavy cream or milk
Sprigs of mint, for garnish, optional

Saute canteloupe in hot butter with sugar, lemon rind, ginger and salt until soft and tender, about 5 minutes over medium heat. Add half and half, bring to a boil, then reduce heat to a simmer and simmer for 10 minutes.

Transfer contents to a blender or food processor and process until smooth and pureed. Cool and chill. Adjust seasonings with lemon juice or even a splash of dry white wine. Garnish with sprigs of mint. Serves 4.

■ Another anonymous reader called and reported that she is concerned about eating potato skins.

Seems her sources have told her to be cautious because the skins might be toxic because of chemicals and sprays being used in the fields. I contacted my sources at the Michigan State University Extension Service and their word is that anytime you prepare fruits, vegetables and potatoes purchased from a grocer or farm market, they should always be cleaned or scrubbed before cooking. If your food is properly cleaned before cooking, there should be no problem. Look for Citri-Spray at health food stores — you spray on, and it cleans and reduces the wax shipping coating on many fruits and vegetables. It retails for about $7.99.

Speaking of potato skins, here's a healthy recipe that tastes as good as the real thing!

CRISPY POTATO SKINS

Starting with leftover baked potatoes is a real timesaver.

2 cooked large baking potatoes (about 8 ounces each)
1 1/2 tablespoons olive oil
2 cloves garlic, crushed
1 teaspoon salt free lemon herb seasoning blend
1 teaspoon butter flavored sprinkles
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon salt (optional)
1 tablespoon fresh grated Provolone cheese

Preheat the broiler. Cut potatoes lengthwise into quarters. Scoop out potatoes, leaving about 1/4 inch shell of skin. Reserve insides of potatoes for another use. In a small bowl, combine oil, garlic, seasoning blend, butter sprinkles, paprika and salt. Brush over both sides of potato shells. Place potato skin side down on a large baking sheet. Sprinkle cheese evenly over the skins. Broil 3-5 minutes or until browned and crispy. Serves 4.

Each serving equals 181 calories; 6 grams total fat (1 gram saturated), 1 mg. cholesterol. Percentage of calories from fat: 28%.

NOW'S THE TIME TO FALL FOR

PEARS

For centuries, people have sung the praises of pears. The ancient Greek poet Homer, for instance, held the pear in the highest esteem, calling it "the gift of the gods."

According to John F. Mariani, author of "The Dictionary of American Food and Drink," (William Morrow and Co. Inc., copyright 1994), Pears originated in Asia, possibly China, and have been cultivated at least since 2000 B.C., with more than 15 thousand species having since been developed from either the "Chinese pear" or the "European pear."

Most American varieties developed from the European pear, which was brought to the Colonies in the 17th century by Jesuit missionaries, English settlers in Massachusetts, and the Dutch in Amsterdam. In the West the pear was introduced by Spanish missionaries by the "49ers" heading for the Great California Gold Rush in covered wagons.

In his book Mariani writes, "by far the most widely cultivated variety in the United States is the "Bartlett," first mentioned in print in 1831."

The Bartlett pear variety originated in Berkshire, England, in the 17th century by a schoolmaster named John Stair.

Stair sold some of his pear tree cuttings to a horticulturist named Williams who further developed the variety. The pear is still called the Stair-Williams pear in some parts of England, but according to Mariani, acquired its American name thanks to Enoch Bartlett of Dorchester, Mass., who promoted the variety in the United States. The Bartlett now accounts for three quarters of U.S. pear production.

Today, the Bartlett is America's favorite pear for both eating and canning.

Now — as the bright, sunny days of summer begin to give way to autumn's cooler temperatures — is a perfect time to enjoy pears.

The largest producers of pears are California, Washington, Oregon, New York, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

California produces 60 percent of the nation's crop. Michigan pears are available at farm markets and stands through October. California Bartlett pears are also available through October.

A medium-size Bartlett pear provides healthful amounts of dietary fiber (4 grams), vitamin C and potassium, at only 100 calories each. Pears contain no cholesterol or sodium and are virtually fat-free.

To pick the perfect pear, look for relatively smooth, unblemished skin. Degree of ripeness is subject to personal preference. Some people like the crunchy texture and taste of green pears; others want them tender, juicy and golden yellow.

Pears are picked mature (green and firm) because they develop an undesirable mealy texture if they are left to ripen on the tree. Green pears may take four to six days to ripen.

If you purchase Bartletts that are "breaking" or green tinged with yellow, they will fully ripen in two to three days. If you prefer eating pears that are more firm, this is the perfect stage.

Always ripen pears by placing them in a fruit bowl at room temperature. Once they reach your desired ripeness or turn yellow, place them in the refrigerator to slow further ripening. Depending on ripeness, they can hold for almost a week.

To help cut or sliced Bartlett pears retain their color, dip them into a mixture of 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 cup water.

A slightly under ripe pear is perfect for poaching or baking. An overripe pear makes a great base for a blended drink.

A Pick of the Pears

SUMMER PEARS

■ Bartlett pears, are bell-shaped and the most familiar of the summer varieties. The new crop becomes available in August and continues into early winter. Bartletts change color from green to yellow as they ripen; ripe Red Bartletts have spectacular crimson-colored skins; both have white, juicy flesh and superb flavor.

WINTER PEARS

■ Anjou and Red Anjou pears are almost egg-shaped with a slight "shoulder" and short stem. They are wonderfully juicy when ripe and have a mild, spicy taste. Anjous are the most abundant of the varieties, excellent for salads and for juicing; available from October to June.

■ Bosc pears are symmetrical with a long tapering neck and slightly rough, golden-brown skin, which does not change color when ripe. Their creamy taste and attractive shape makes them ideal for poaching, baking or preserving; good for eating fresh too. Available from August through May.

■ Comice pears are greenish yellow with sometimes a rosy blush. They have a short neck and stem and are superbly sweet. Harvest starts in October so these are the pears frequently seen in holiday gift boxes, prized for their abundant juice.

■ Nelis pears are small with brown russeting over a light green skin. They are sweet, flavorful and firm enough for cooking and canning; available from October onward.

■ Forelle pears are small and bell-shaped with sweet, juicy flesh and crimson "freckles" that develop as the fruit ripens. The season lasts from February to September.

■ Seckel pears, the smallest variety, have a dark red blush, particularly sweet taste, and are delicious eaten fresh. Available August to January.

Family favorite pizza crosses cuisines

It's a popular thing these days to blend cuisines. And a pizza is a perfect place to do it!

Cheese "Steak" Pizza combines the favorite flavors of a Philadelphia-style cheese steak sandwich in a pizza presentation. So simple, so delicious and 30 minutes quick — the whole family will love it.

Top a handy ready-made Italian bred shell with a cooked ground beef, onion and bell pepper mixture, sprinkle with convenient pre-shredded mozzarella and bake just to heat through. Cut into wedges and serve with a green salad.

Recipes like this one made with readily available, on-hand ingredients are the key to the quick-cook's repertoire. Keeping the pantry, refrigerator and freezer stocked with staples such as bread shells or pizza crusts, ground beef, pre-shredded and sliced cheeses, pasta sauces, frozen vegetables, spices and seasonings, and "good-keepers" like onions and garlic provides the makings for all kinds of delicious, quick meals.

Ground beef, frozen in meal-sized packages, can be the basis for many a weeknight main dish — from burgers to burritos, meatballs to tacos to pizza.

Freeze ground beef three to four months at 0 degrees F. or lower. Defrost it overnight in the refrigerator, never at room temperature. Always cook ground beef until it's no longer pink.

Quick pizza: Delicious, versatile ground beef teamed with bell pepper, onion and mozzarella cheese tops an Italian bread shell to make a quick Cheese "Steak" pizza.

NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S BEEF ASSOCIATION

CHEESE "STEAK" PIZZA

Total preparation and cooking time: 30 minutes
1 pound ground beef
1 small green or red bell pepper, cut into thin strips
1 small onion, thinly sliced, separated into rings
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 large (16 ounce) Italian bread shell (approximately 12-inch diameter)
2 cups shredded low-moisture part-skim mozzarella cheese

Heat oven to 400 degrees F. In large skillet, brown ground beef over medium heat 6 minutes. Add bell pepper and onion; cook 3 to 4 minutes or until beef is no longer pink and vegetables are crisp-tender, stirring occasionally. Season with salt and pepper.

Place bread shell on baking sheet. Remove beef and vegetables from skillet with slotted spoon; arrange on top of bread shell. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in 400 degree F. oven 8 to 10 minutes or until cheese is melted; cut into 8 wedges. Makes 4 servings.

BREADED CALIFORNIA BARTLETT PEAR SALAD

Lemon Vinaigrette
- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons chopped fresh parsley
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1/4 teaspoon kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper to taste

Pear Salad
- 1/2 cup all purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground white pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 4 eggs lightly, beaten
- 3/4 cup seasoned dry bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 4 ripe, medium-size fresh California Bartlett pears, cored and quartered
- Vegetable oil for frying
- 4 cups mixed baby field greens
- 6 ounces prosciutto, sliced very thin
- Aged balsamic vinegar (optional)

For Lemon Vinaigrette: Combine ingredients in a bowl and beat well or in a screw-top jar and shake well. Chill several hours to meld flavors.

For Pear Salad: Combine flour, salt, pepper and paprika in small, shallow bowl. In another bowl, lightly beat eggs. In still another shallow bowl, toss crumbs with olive oil. Dredge pear quarters in seasoned flour. Dip in beaten egg; drain off excess. Then, roll in crumb mixture. (In order for crumb mixture to adhere, pears must be ripe.) Deep-fry at 350 degrees F. until golden brown. Beat or shake vinaigrette again and toss greens with half of dressing.

To serve, arrange prosciutto on 4 salad plates. Mound greens in center and arrange 4 warm pear quarters on top. Drizzle remaining vinaigrette and aged balsamic vinegar (if desired) over each salad. Sprinkle lightly with pepper to taste. Makes 4 servings.

Recipe from Todd English, Olives restaurant in Charlestown, Mass., and the California Pear Advisory Board.

ROASTED CALIFORNIA BARTLETT PEARS WITH CINNAMON AND WINE

- 6 fresh California Bartlett pears, cut in quarters and cored
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1/4 cup light brown sugar
- 1/4 cup dry red wine
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- Glazed Almonds, for garnish (recipe follows)

Place pears in a 9- by 13- by 2-inch glass baking dish. Mix honey, brown sugar, wine and cinnamon together in small bowl. Spoon over pears and toss gently until coated. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 20 to 30 minutes or until tender. Spoon into individual dessert bowls. Sprinkle Glazed Almonds on top. Makes 6 servings.

Glazed almonds: In small bowl, beat 1 egg white until foamy. Stir in 1 package (6 ounces) sliced almonds until well coated; remove almonds and drain. Toss with 1/3 cup granulated sugar.

Spread in single layer and well separated on lightly oiled baking sheet. Bake at 300 degrees F, turning frequently with spatula, until golden brown and caramelized, about 12 to 15 minutes.

Recipe from Gale Grand, Brasserie T. restaurant, Northfield, Ill and the California Pear Advisory Board.

GRILLED PORK TENDERLOIN WITH CALIFORNIA BARTLETT PEAR RELISH

- 2 pounds pork tenderloin or pork medallions

Marinade
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 4 sprigs fresh rosemary leaves, crushed
- 3 sprigs fresh thyme leaves, crushed
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon black peppercorns, crushed
- California Bartlett Pear Relish
- 1 cup diced fresh California Bartlett pear
- 1 cup diced fresh mango
- 1 cup diced fresh pineapple
- 1 cup diced fresh tomatoes
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- 3/4 cup thinly sliced green onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh cilantro
- 1/2 cup chopped macadamia nuts
- 1/2 teaspoon finely chopped jalapeno chile pepper
- Salt and pepper to taste

Balsamic Rum Syrup
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/4 cup water
- 3/4 cup balsamic vinegar
- 2 tablespoons rum

For marinade: Place tenderloins in shallow glass pan. Combine olive oil, rosemary, thyme, garlic and peppercorns in small bowl; mix well and pour over meat. Cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight.

For California Bartlett Pear Relish: Combine all ingredients in stainless steel or glass mixing bowl and mix well. Adjust seasonings to taste. Chill thoroughly.

For Balsamic Rum Syrup: Combine sugar and water in saucepan. Heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved.

Bring mixture to a boil; boil until reduced to 1/4 cup. Add balsamic vinegar and reduce to 2/3 cup. Remove from heat and stir in rum. Keep warm.

To serve, drain tenderloin; slice and season with salt and pepper. Grill until medium-well done. Arrange on serving plates. Drizzle with Balsamic Rum Syrup,. Spoon generous servings of California Bartlett Pear Relish alongside. Makes 8 servings.

Berry sorbets are easy to make

AP — Intensely flavored, berry sorbets are easy to make and virtually fat-free. With an ice-cream maker, Raspberry Orange Sorbet and Kiwi-Lime Sorbet with Whole Blackberries are ready to serve in about 30 minutes. It is best to serve sorbet immediately after it is removed from the ice-cream maker. Or if the sorbet has been frozen, soften in the refrigerator for 15 to 20 minutes before serving.

RASPBERRY ORANGE SORBET

- 3 cups raspberries
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 teaspoon orange extract
- and 1 teaspoon finely grated orange zest
- 2 tablespoons raspberry liqueur

For best consistency, all ingredients should be chilled.

Puree raspberries and strain through a fine sieve. Combine puree with other ingredients and stir for several minutes until all the sugar is dissolved. Transfer berry mixture to ice-cream maker and process according to manufacturer's instructions. Serve immediately or spoon berry sorbet into covered airtight container and freeze. Makes 4 servings.

Nutrition facts per serving: 266 cal., 0 g pro., 0 g fat, 64 g carbo., 1 mg sodium, 0 mg chol., 4 g fiber.

KIWI-LIME SORBET WITH WHOLE BLACKBERRIES

- 1 1/2 cups peeled, pureed, kiwi, with seeds (about 6 to 7 kiwi)
- 4 tablespoons lime juice (about 1 lime)
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon blackberry liqueur
- 1 generous cup frozen blackberries

For best consistency, all ingredients should be chilled.

Combine all ingredients except frozen berries and stir for several minutes until all sugar is dissolved.

Transfer kiwi-lime mixture to ice-cream maker and process according to manufacturer's instructions. Layer sorbet with frozen berries into container and freeze, or serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

Ice cream tips

Here are some ice cream tips from Melody Farms.

■ Ice cream, sherbets and yogurts may be kept up to two months if stored at 0 degrees F. or below. Residential freezers are about 10 degrees F. and ice cream will go through "shock" every time the freezer goes through a defrost cycle. ice creams, yogurts and sherbets that have softened or party melted and then are refrozen, lose volume and become coarse in texture, diminishing the creaminess factor of the product.

■ Plastic containers with tight fitting lids or overwrap with foil or plastic wrap provide good protection when storing ice cream, sherbet or yogurt for more than a few days.

Start with a mix for quick cakes and desserts

Home baking is on the rise but with an important difference. We're baking faster and smarter by taking advantage of the growing number of mixes — bread, cookie, cake and others.

Convenience baking is more than just following directions on the box. Consumers are finding creative ways to personalize their baking. Some make a mix more healthful by using egg whites and yogurt in place of the whole eggs and oil in a cake mix, or by adding quick or old fashioned oats to a blueberry muffin mix.

Banana-nana Pecan Bread starts with a box of banana quick bread mix. Mashed banana intensifies the bread's banana flavor while a buttery pecan oat streusel is blended into the batter and sprinkled on top for a crunchy, praline-like crust. Paired with a glass of cold milk or freshly brewed coffee, this bread is perfect for brunch or a midday snack.

Berry-Licious Lemon Streusel Cake does double duty as a coffee cake and dessert. A plain yellow cake mix gets personality from fresh berries and an old-fashioned oat streusel topping. Oats also are added to the cake batter for whole grain texture and additional B vitamins.

To trim fat and cholesterol, low-fat yogurt replaces the oil called for in the package directions; egg whites are substituted for whole eggs.

BANANA-NANA PECAN BREAD

- 1 cup oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 3 tablespoons margarine or butter, melted
- 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
- One 14-ounce package banana bread quick bread mix
- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup mashed ripe banana (about 1 large)
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil

Heat oven to 375°F. Grease and flour bottom only of a 9 by 5-inch loaf pan. In small bowl, combine oats, pecans, margarine and brown sugar; mix well. Reserve 1/2 cup mixture, set aside.

In large bowl, combine remaining oat mixture, quick bread mix, water, banana, eggs and oil. Mix until dry ingredients are moistened.

Pour into prepared pan. Sprinkle top of loaf with reserved oat mixture. Bake 50 to 55 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes in pan; remove to wire rack. Cool completely. Serves 12.

BERRY-LICIOUS LEMON STREUSEL CAKE

Cake
- One 18.5 ounce package yellow cake mix
- 3/4 cup oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)
- 1 cup water
- 1/3 cup plain lowfat yogurt
- 3 egg whites
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon peel
- 1/2 cup fresh raspberries
- 1/2 cup fresh or frozen blueberries

Streusel topping
- 1 cup oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup margarine or butter, melted

Heat oven to 350°F. Lightly grease and flour sides and bottom of 13 by 9-inch pan. In large mixer bowl, combine cake mix, oats, water, yogurt, egg whites and lemon peel; blend at low speed of an electric mixer until moistened.

Beat at medium speed for 2 minutes, occasionally scraping sides of bowl. Gently fold berries into batter. Pour batter into prepared pan.

For streusel topping, combine all ingredients, mixing until crumbly. Sprinkle over top of batter. Bake 35 to 37 minutes or until wooden pick inserted into center of cake comes out clean. Cool completely on wire rack. Serves 16.

When the geese imprinting on the girl, the father and daughter undertake the task of teaching the geese to migrate. Stars Jeff Daniels.

BOOKS

Schoolcraft offers writer's forum

A new forum for writers is set to get underway this fall at Schoolcraft College in Livonia.

English professor Arthur Lindenberg, who initiated the program, has invited five prominent authors to visit the campus during the coming weeks to participate in the program. Each will read from his or her work at a 2 p.m. session open to the public. (Specific meeting rooms will be announced later).

From 7-9:50 p.m. the writers will critique manuscripts of students enrolled in English 206, a 16-week creative writing class taught by Lindenberg. The public is also invited to sit in on the critiquing sessions, said Lindenberg. All events are free.

Noted Illinois poet, fiction writer, and memoirist Gary Gildner, will visit the campus Sept. 18. Also scheduled to participate in events during the coming weeks are Kathleen Ripley Leo (Oct. 2), Jim Daniels (Oct. 22), and Danny Rendleman (Nov. 20).

On Nov. 6, Schoolcraft will host fiction writer/poet Jan Worth, winner of The MacGuffin's first nationwide Poet Hunt competition last year.

Only those enrolled in English 206 may have their work read and critiqued by the visiting writers. Classes begin Aug. 28. Late registration runs through Aug. 30. For more information, call (313) 462-4400, Ext. 5292.

Lindenberg said the forum's shape began to gel last year, after he had participated in a writers conference co-sponsored by Oakland University and Detroit Women Writers. At the event, University of Michigan professor/poet Richard Tillinghast discussed such a format during one of the day's sessions, he said.

"For a number of years we have wanted to offer a forum in which writers could interact with each other," said Lindenberg, who also edits the college's literary arts journal, The MacGuffin. "We're trying to reach out, to appeal to a group in the community who would use the college if more of this kind of thing were offered."

Fall softball signup

A five-week men's softball league is being formed by the Canton Parks and Recreation Services to start play Tues., Sept. 3, at Heritage Park Softball Fields.

There is a Tuesday-Wednesday league and a Wednesday-Thursday league with game starting times of 6:45, 7:30, 8:45 and 10 p.m. There are no residency requirements.

Entrance fees ($200/team) include game balls but each team must pay a $15/game umpire fee. Teams play a double-headers a week.

Registration continues until Aug. 30 at the Canton Parks and Recreation Services, 46000 Summit Parkway. For more information call 397-5110.

Mid-America tryouts

Tryouts for the Mid-America girls summer softball program (ages 10-19) will be held Saturday Aug. 24 and Saturday, Sept. 7 at Heritage Park in Canton. For more information, call Bob Jastrzebski at (313) 844-3931.

3-on-3 hoop contest

The first-place prize will be $500 for the winners of a half-court, 3-on-3 basketball tournament Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 28-29, at The Sports Academy in Novi.

The double-elimination tournament is open to players 18 years of age and older. High School students are not eligible to participate.

Games are played to 21 points but will not exceed one hour. Competition begins at 7 a.m. and continues through the championship game.

The tournament, at $100 per team, is limited to the first 20 teams. Referees will be provided.

Make checks payable to The Sports Academy and send or to 22515 Heslip Drive, Novi, MI 48375.

For more information call (810) 380-0800 or fax to (810) 380-8144.

Chiefs vs. Borgess

Plymouth Canton's girls basketball team opens its season Tuesday at Redford Bishop Borgess.

The Spartans will be missing one of their top players, 6-foot junior Koren Merchant, who has missed preseason practices and is rumored to be moving to West Virginia.

Bishop Borgess was runnerup in the Class C segment of the state tournament last year and won the crown two years ago.

Look for Canton's basketball preview in Thursday's Observer.

Rocks' fortunes looking up

A nice blend of experience and young talent has coach Fred Thomann setting a high goal for his Plymouth Salem girls basketball team – advancing beyond the regionals in the state tournament.

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

Some teams are young and some teams are good.

Then there's Plymouth Salem's girls basketball team, which is both young and good.

Coach Fred Thomann's team posted a 17-7 record last season and advanced as far as the regional final before losing in overtime, 49-47, to Birmingham Marian.

"Our goal," Thomann said, "is to exceed last year, build on last year, take it up to another level.

"It's going to be tough, though. We've got an outstanding non-conference schedule plus there are three or four really good teams in our league."

One, of course, is Salem.

The Rocks return three starters -- all underclassmen -- in 6-foot-1 1/2 perimeter player Amanda Abraham, a junior, plus sophomores Angie Sillmon (5-10) and Andrea Pruett (6-1).

Two of the three were second-team All-Western Lakes Activities Association and the third missed by just one vote.

"That's a cluster of three players who have been recognized by the league as being very good," Thomann said. They're all his, too.

The Rocks did lose one very good player, center Shellye Sills. But an experienced hand will slide in to take her place in 6-1 senior Merritt Walker.

It's the presence of Walker and two other seniors -- 5-9 Laural Weinman and 5-5 guard Janelle Sterling -- that gives Thomann the nice blend of talent, youth and experience to keep the program at a high level.

"We've got a nice mix of kids," he said.

Weinman opened the season as a starter but hurt her ankle. Sillmon came in and played so well she remained in the starting lineup.

Walker will give Salem some post presence while Sterling has some quickness that will enable her to match up well against certain opponents.

Salem will get help from another junior, 5-9 1/2 Heather Guerin, who has some strength, as well as 5-10 junior Nikki Nauman, an inside player. Another junior, Laura Schneider, is a left-handed point guard.

■ 'Our goal is to exceed last year, build on last year, take it up to another level.'

Fred Thomann
—Salem coach

Thomann has a 5-9 freshman who figures to see a lot of playing time in Tiffany Grubaugh.

"All these kids have had some pretty good basketball experience in their careers, either AAU, CYO or middle school," he said.

Abraham will have the ball in her hands a lot. She goes to her left probably better than any right-hander in the league and showed at times last season she was on the verge of being able to take over games by herself.

There were also times when her ball-handling revealed her to be the sophomore that she was. That figures to be improved for her junior season, however.

Sillmon and Pruett should see their games take a big leap foward. They're sophomores who started as freshmen plus they'll be expected to play bigger roles.

It all adds up to a good team, although the Rocks' final record could well end up somewhere in the neighborhood of last year's.

If Salem's kids are like kids have been since the beginning of time, they think their coach was born at exactly the same age he is now.

Thomann's players probably don't know it but their coach was a pretty country fair basketball player in his day. Those who saw him at Michigan State know he always gave the Spartans everything he had to give.

One of the things he learned was that to be the best, you have to play competition as good or better than you are.

So Thomann always schedules good opponents for his good teams.

Salem opens Tuesday at home against Ann Arbor Pioneer, which beat the Rocks by a point last year. It then plays Rochester Adams, Class C runnerup Redford Bishop Borgess, Ann Arbor Huron and defending Class A champion Flint Northern before beginning the WLAA season.

"We're pretty athletic," Thomann said. "We've got a bit of size. And we should do well on the perimeter. Our defense is solid, too."

It will take some time before the players settle into their roles, find out what each other can do.

That's a problem every team faces at the start of a new season. They just don't face it with Salem's players.

Girls top 20 hoop list

Here is the Observer's Steve Kowalski's preseason list of the Top 20 girls basketball player for the upcoming season, which starts Tuesday for most teams:

1. Aiysha Smith, 6-1 junior center, Redford Bishop Borgess: A mobile inside player who played like a senior as a sophomore, averaging 12 points and 10 rebounds per game. Nice touch up to 15 feet. Starter since a frosh, a tireless defender who can guard perimeter and post players. Top Miss Basketball candidate, nationally recruited player if she keeps it up.

2. Yolanda Holt, 5-11 senior guard, Wayne: Now that Redford Bishop Borgess Miss Basketball winner Maxann Reese has graduated, Holt is the undisputed most-exciting player in the area. Her height at the point guard position makes it tough for opponents to match up in open court. Has thre-point shooting range and good court awareness, although she has a tendency to be out of control.

3. Amanda Abraham, 6-1 1/2 junior guard, Plymouth Salem: Abraham is already a seasoned veteran with two full years of high school eligibility remaining. Adjusted well to perimeter last year, scoring about 10 points per game en route to earning second-team All-Observer honors. She runs the floor well and can finish in transition with either hand. Coach Fred Thomann expects her to be a three-point threat after not making any in 1995.

4. Angie Sillmon, 5-10 sophomore, Salem: Sillmon creates offense with outstanding defensive play. Has a nice pull-up jumper from about 15 feet and ability to shoot from three-point range.

5. Amanda Porter, 5-7 senior guard, Farmington: A three-year starter, Porter puts up impressive numbers despite the attention she draws from defenses. Good shooting range and can finish drives in the lane against taller players. Averaged 14 points/game to go with 4 rebounds, 4 steals, 3 assists. Clutch free throw shooter.

■ BASKETBALL

6. Kristi Fiorenzi, 5-9 senior guard-forward, Plymouth Canton: Three-year starter for the Chiefs who averaged 11.5 points per game as a junior. She uses screens and picks well and can hit a 15-foot jump shot consistently. A good inside shooter who has improved her range.

7. Amy Roble, 5-8 junior guard, Farmington Hills Harrison: A standout since her freshman year, Roble is a tough, versatile guard. Averaged 10 points a year ago after scoring eight per game as a freshman. Also improved low post moves.

8. Mary Jane Valade, 5-8 senior forward, Mercy: Valade had a strong junior campaign, earning second-team All-Observer honors. Does most of her work inside against taller players.

9. Rica Barge, 5-8 senior forward, Wayne: A nice complement to Holt, and does more of the dirty work for the Zebras. Scorer first who can beat defenders off dribble on the baseline.

10. Candice Finley, 6-0 senior center, Borgess: The returning starter averaged 8 points and 8 rebounds per game. A strong rebounder and aggressive post player, is being recruited by Division I schools.

The second 10, alphabetically:

Christina Anderson, 5-6 junior guard, Borgess: Anderson had her moments as a sophomore, and with Reese and Adriane Bryant off to Michigan State and Toledo, respectively, her talents will be on more display. Anderson has good range on her jump shot and is fast end to end. Her ballhandling will be crucial to the Spartans' hopes in '96.

Mary Anderson, 5-4 senior guard, Canton: Outstanding defender with good command of what coach Bob Blohm wants accomplished from the point-guard position. All-area hurdler in track.

Jessie Brennan, 5-9 sophomore guard, Mercy: Started as a freshman on the varsity at point. Has nice court vision.

Melissa Marzolf, 5-7 junior forward, Canton: Made good impressions as a sophomore, averaging 8 ppg. Plays well with back to the basket and like Fiorenzi is strong off the dribble.

Koren Merchant, 6-0 junior forward, Borgess: A disclaimer must be made here, because she is rumored to be moving to West Virginia with her family. Averaged 12 points and five rebounds per game as a sophomore, but was inconsistent because of her lack of defensive intensity.

Stephanie Mussat, 5-8 senior guard, Livonia Ladywood: Mussat was one of the Blazers' top reserves last year. She plays either off guard or small forward, has good shooting touch up to 15 feet.

Sarah Poglits, 6-2 junior center, Ladywood: She split time between the varsity and junior varsity last year. Also an accomplished volleyball player, leaving her not as much time to spend on basketball. She needs to work on consistency and her low post defensive play.

Andrea Pruett, 6-1 sophomore, Salem: Pruett was the Rocks' second-leading rebounder as a freshman and also averaged 10 points per game. She gives the Rocks a solid inside-threat to score.

Jenni Talbot, 5-10 senior center, Garden City: The three-sport standout was the unsung hero on last year's 17-7 Garden City team. With four starters lost due to graduation, she will get more attention but should still better her production from a year ago.

Laura Weinman, 5-9 senior guard, Salem: One of the top three-point shooters in Observerland, Weinman made about 25 treys during a season interrupted by an ankle injury.

Canton cross country close, should surprise somebody soon

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

Plymouth Canton's boys cross country team is a bit like Lake Huron – it's no ocean, but it's a pretty good body of water nonetheless.

The Chiefs are running without Ian Bedford for the first time in years – he's putting in his miles for the University of Detroit this fall – and coach Mike Spitz reports nobody is turning in his kind of times so far this fall.

"A kid like that's hard to replace," Spitz said. "We don't have a runner like that this year, not somebody who's going to be out at front in the big regionals and meets, things like that.

"We're going to have to go about things a little differently this year. Our other guys are going to have to do a little growing up."

Canton also lost senior captain Ryan Portrey, whom Spitz praised as an outstanding example of the kind of leadership seniors should provide.

His captain this year will be senior Sanjay Sharma, who missed most of last season due to injury and illness.

"We're hoping he can come back and have a good senior year," Spitz said.

Senior Adam DeGiorgio figures to be a key contributor for Canton this fall, the coach said, while Robert Mayer "has been working real hard. I've been impressed with the way he's handled himself in practices so far."

Mayer and DeGiorgio are both four-year contributers to Chief cross country teams.

"We have another four-year man, Jason Vergari," Spitz said. "He was a consistent varsity runner last year. I expect he'll be contributing a lot this year."

Spitz has also seen enough thus far to hope for good things this fall from Jason Diamond, who spent the bulk of last season with the junior varsity.

"Overall, we lost four of our top seven," Spitz said, "so we're coming back with just a few guys who've seen varsity competition. But we need experience there.

"The kids coming back, our seniors in particular, have been working real hard. We're hoping they can adapt to varsity competition."

But after several seasons of being a top dog, Canton now will play the underdog role. At least initially.

"We've been near the top of the league the last four years," Spitz said. "I don't know if we'll finish as high as we have, but I expect we'll finish in the top five and have a winning dual meet record.

"We might possibly even get somebody to the state meet."

The Chiefs have a smaller squad than they've had in recent years (Spitz said just a couple of dozen) "but that's okay," he said. "The guys I have are working hard.

"I like the focus they have in their training. I hope they're able to convert all that into a successful season, reaching their personal goals as well as our team goals.

"I think it's going to be an uphill battle for us, so to speak, compared to past seasons."

Some promising newcomers will undoubtedly surface once the season gets underway, which it will Aug. 29 when Canton participates in the Troy Athens Invitational, a time trail meet.

Canton's first dual meet is at Cass Benton on Sept. 4 against – surprise – Plymouth Salem. That ought to spark one or two personal bests right there.

After that, who knows?

Having trouble choosing a no-load fund? We can help.

With a universe of over 7,600 mutual funds, investing in funds has become increasingly difficult. That's why Smith Barney developed a new investment advisory program using some of the most popular no-load fund families in the industry, including:

Dreyfus, Janus, Scudder and Twentieth Century.

The program, which features TRAK Personalized Investment Advisory Service, is designed to help investors get the most out of their mutual fund portfolio by providing professional investment advice and a personalized asset allocation strategy.

Come to our free seminar and learn more about TRAK and how it can help you make informed investment decisions based on your needs.

Featured Speaker:
John Pratt, First Vice President–Assistant Director, of Smith Barney's TRAK Sales & Marketing Department

DATE & TIME: September 10th, 1996 at 7:00 p.m.
PLACE: Troy Marriot Hotel
RSVP: (810) 358-5000
The seminar is free, but reservations are required.

More complete information about TRAK, including fees, will be available at the seminar. The maximum annual investment advisory fee for participating in TRAK is 1.5% (the annual fee for retirement accounts may differ). Also, more complete information, including charges and expenses on the mutual funds available through TRAK is contained in each fund's prospectus. These prospectuses will be available at the seminar. Read the funds' prospectuses carefully before investing.

Dimitriou gets a kick out of good soccer teams

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

With people like Van Dimitriou, the Schoolcraft College men's soccer program is always in good hands.

Or is it good feet?

Despite losing virtually everybody off last year's squad, 15-3-1 overall and Region 12 finalists in the National Junior College Athletic Association (losing to DuPage, Ill.), Dimitriou recruited during the off-season like an insurance man, putting together another Allstate cast.

"Last year we were not quite as deep," said Dimitriou, now in his 13th season. "We had a good starting eight or nine, but not quite as solid with our marking backs or midfielders.

"These kids can play. They have more potential than any other team I've had as far as talent. And I think we'll gel."

Gone is Mo Hijazi, who set a Schoolcraft record last year for goals (31).

Also using up their JC eligibility are three Eastern Michigan University recruits, Livonia Franklin High products Victor Rodopoulos and Dave Binkiewicz, along with Plymouth Canton grad Eric Stoecklein. Dimitriou must also replace Israeli native George Abuamsha and goalkeeper Ari Mecholwicz.

Filling the void at forward will be two freshmen, Mike Dean, who scored 35 goals last spring for Dearborn Edsel Ford, and Dave York of Novi, a member of the first-place Birmingham Cobras of the Great Lakes Men's Soccer League.

"Dean can play a number of different positions," Dimitriou said. "He doesn't mind playing all over. He distributes the ball as well as anyone. He can play defense and sweeps like it's his normal position. But he'll start out at forward."

Dimitriou will also use Garrett Maki (Dearborn Heights Crestwood), Mark Hill (East Kentwood) and possibly Movin Salame (Dearborn Fordson) at the forward spots as well.

"Mo (Hijazi) and Fadi (Bazzi) stood out individually, but this is the best I've ever had as a group," Dimitriou said. "Last year Mo scored 31 and the next guy had nine, but this year I think we'll have four or five who will score 14 or 15 apiece. We've got a lot more balance."

Dimitriou says Maki "moves as well as anybody," while Hill provides a "good target up-front, which is real nice to have."

"I love the kid (Maki)," Dimitriou said. "He's short and stocky, like a German-type forward with good acceleration. He's good friends with Dean and you could see the two together."

Dimitriou, however, also has several midfielders to choose from.

Newcomers Pete Lechowicz (Livonia Stevenson) and Kevin Fritz (Brighton) will share the left side. Matt Keller (Rochester Adams), Abdul Kerek (Fordson), Igli Vokopola (Royal Oak Kimball) and Mike Minicilli (Stevenson) and Paul Graves (Milford) will see playing time along with holdovers Mike Bona (Franklin) and George Abuamsha.

"Igli was rated one of the top 10 in Oakland County," said of the Kimball midfielder, who has been nursing a sore ankle. "And Mincilli has put on 15 pounds and grown three or four inches. He looks good."

Walk-on Bill Krips (Brighton) has been a pleasant surprise in preseason camp as a stopper.

"He's a perfect fit, I like everything about him," Dimitriou said. "He's tall and skinny, but very agile. He's great in the air."

Another potential starter is Shaun Pratt (Clawson), who is out three to four weeks with a broken collarbone. The lone returning starter from a year ago, Joe Sisko (Canton), will be joined in the back line by Chris Jaskolski (Plymouth Salem), James Bossieux (Canton), Mike Preston (Milford) and Brian Luck (Brighton).

Bossieux, a transfer from Ohio Wesleyan, is expected to be eligible once all his credits transfer.

"He's very intelligent and does it all defensively," Dimitriou said. "He communicates very well. And Jaskolski is very steady, while Preston has a very good attitude."

The goalkeeping situation boils down to four candidates.

Last year's back-up Joe McCarty (Brighton), is fighting off challenges from two Redford Catholic Central products, Travis Miller and Jeremy Podolak, along with Ryan Scheid, the latter whom could also be converted to defense.

With all the competition, Dimitriou must pare his roster down this week before the team heads to Monroe CC (N.Y.) this weekend for a pair of games against Mount Ida (Mass.) and Essex (N.Y.), a pair of NJCAA quarterfinalists.

"I had to go out and recruit because we lost just about everybody," Dimitriou said. "For the first week, this is the best conditioned team I've had since my first year. This is as good a start, training-wise, as we've ever had. Their attitude is very good about playing the game and I think we've reached the stage now where I think we're as good talent-wise, as many of the top teams nationally."

How would this man compose a PERSONAL SCENE ad?

Perhaps something like this:

ROBUST POLITICIAN and member of the Bull Moose party, seeks companion with whom to charge up hills and share other such bully adventures.

"I wish to preach, not the doctrine of ignoble ease, but the doctrine of strenuous life."

–Theodore Roosevelt 1899

Personal Scene Ads in The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers allow you to record a message in your own voice over the phone. That way when people see your ad in the paper, they can dial your code, hear your message and leave a message of their own. You can call, day or night, to get your messages. It's fast, it's easy, and it helps people find out more about each other. Look in today's classifieds or call your Observer & Eccentric ad taker and ask about our introductory offer. This could be the beginning of a real adventure complete with lots of physical activity.

Saab 900 Convertible Saab 9000 Saab 900
Saabs have always delivered outstanding performance on the road. And now, for a limited time, their figures on paper are equally impressive. Choose any Saab 900 Convertible or 9000, all considered The Car Book's "Best Bets," and take advantage of either 0% APR financing or as much as $3,000 in factory-to-dealer incentives.
The Saab 900 and 9000 Series also have lower estimated preventive-maintenance costs for 50,000 miles than the Lexus LS400, the Volvo 850, BMW 3-Series, the Infiniti J30 and the Mercedes-Benz C-Class. For a live performance of the entire Saab line, see your nearest dealer for complete details and a test-drive.
*0% APR financing available on all 1996 Saab models. Financing to qualified and approved retail buyers who take delivery by September 30, 1996. Subject to availability and other limitations apply. Factory-to-dealer incentives apply to any new 1996 Saab purchased or leased out of dealer inventory, from an authorized Saab dealer between August 1, 1996, and September 30, 1996, except for those purchases which are financed under the 0% APR finance program. Dealer incentives are $2,000.00 on a 1996 Saab 900 S or SE Coupe or 5-door, $2,500.00 on a 1996 Saab 9000 S or SE Convertible, $3,000.00 on a 1996 Saab 9000 CS, CSE or Aero. Subject to availability. *"Buy" prices just add tax. No hidden charges, "games", or gimmicks. We love our customers. Other dealers will tell you we can't deliver at these prices, but we can and will. 36 mo. lease, 30 mo. lease & 24 mo. lease also available at different payments. Lessee has option to purchase at lease end at a price determined at lease inception. Picture may not depict actual vehicle. If a lease, to get total of paymts., multiply term x paymt. Sale ends when vehicles listed are sold or when Isuzu cancels this super program which they could do at their whim. 1st mo. payment, sec. dep., license due on delivery. No acquisition fee, we pay it. Use tax not inc. in paymt. Subject to real easy credit approval. All rebates and incentives assigned to dealer. If you are not interested, tell someone who should be. We love our customers. Mazda MX-6 drives to be the best

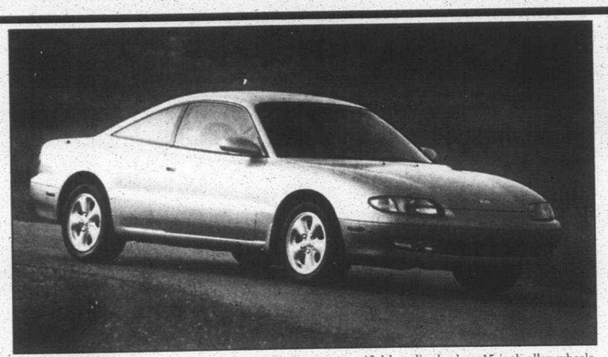
By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures



ROAD TEST By Anne Fracassa

The Mazda MX-6 sports coupe has a special place in my heart.

It got a lot of people in the downriver and western communities of Metro Detroit working again when Mazda retooled a shuttered Ford plant and began building the MX-6 in the fall of 1987.

The best part of all of it was that Mazda gave laid-off Ford workers first crack at the jobs in the plant, now known as AutoAlliance International. A cousin of mine, laid off from Ford, joined Mazda's ranks at that time.

AutoAlliance, a joint venture with Ford Motor Co. presently employs 3,700 people who put together MX-6, sister-car Ford Probe and Mazda 626. The MX-6, by the way, is one of two import-badge cars to be classified by the EPA as a domestic vehicle. How 'bout that?

And as stylish and smart-looking as the MX-6 was when it was introduced in 1987 as a 1988 model, the tradition continues with the 1996 MX-6 LS. The last makeover of the MX-6 was as a 1993 model.

The Mazda MX-6 LS is more luxurious than the base model, from its powerful engine to its leather-wrapped steering wheel and host of other options.

Lets take a look at the engine first. On the base model, you'll find a 2.0-liter dual overhead camshaft 16-valve 4-cylinder engine capable of 118 horsepower. Its got a stainless steel exhaust manifold, cast iron engine block and aluminum cylinder head.

The LS comes outfitted with a 2.5-liter dual overhead camshaft 24-valve V6 that produces a strong 164 horses. This one has a cast iron exhaust manifold, Aluminum engine with cast iron cylinder liners and aluminum cylinder heads. Recommended fuel is premium unleaded.

The V6 is responsive when you want it, yet is not overpowering. The mix is perfect.

Both models can be outfitted with a 5-speed manual transmission or a 4-speed electronically controlled automatic transmission. Every MX-6 is outfitted with dual airbags and an antilock braking system is available on both models.

MX-6 carries four people comfortably, although it's a bit rough on booster car seats. The rear seats have a configuration that just makes it hard to get the car seat to sit just right.

The base model has a large list of standard equipment including tilt steering column, power mirrors, power windows, power door locks, cruise control and an AM/FM/cassette stereo.

The LS model adds 4-wheel disc brakes, 15-inch alloy wheels, air conditioning, fog lamps, leather-wrapped steering wheel and shift know, anti-theft alarm, power sunroof, upgraded stereo system, dual outlet exhaust, fog lamps, mud guards and upgraded cloth fabric.

The real cargo area is more than adequate for anyone and the 60/40 split fold-down rear seat will help you move longer or bulkier cargo if you need to.

This sports coupe is the perfect size for anyone from a college kid to a mom with kids. Best of all, it's spirited.

The MX-6 has wonderful handling and cornering characteristics and quite a bit of comfort — both for the driver as well as the passengers. The driver's seat is outfitted with an adjustable thigh support for greater comfort on longer drives.

There are two option packages available for the MX-6. Most popular is the package with 14-inch alloy wheels, power sunroof, intermittent wipers, anti-theft alarm with keyless remote and an upgraded stereo with power antenna.

The leather package is also an option and is standard on the M edition of MX-6 and includes leather seating, power driver's seat, keyless entry and heated exterior mirrors.

The dealer will install a six-disc CD changer, an in-dash CD, front mask, rear spoiler, rear wing, stainless-steel scuff plates, roof rack and a sunroof wind deflector if you ask.

The MX-6 is a strong entry in the sports car market. It isn't the least expensive on the market, but it's worth a look. Great ride, great handling and very quick. Watch your rear view mirror.

Save On Auto Insurance Costs

(NAPS) – The best way to save on auto insurance is to shop around for the insurer that best suits your needs. Most drivers find that an agent who represents different insurers can offer a variety of recommendations about what policy is right for them.

Here are some steps you can take to reduce your insurance rates from the experts at the Independent Insurance Agents of America. Remember, insurers generally offer discounts for:

- Safety features - Anti-lock brakes, air bags and passive restraint systems (i.e., automatic seat belts).
- Defensive driving - Clean violation record, driver's-ed courses for teenagers and defensive driving or accident prevention courses for adults.
- Security systems - Alarms, electronic locks and disabling devices.
- Changing driving habits - Commuting by public transit, using a company vehicle for work-related travel and car pooling.
- Formal agreements not to drink and drive - The availability of a discount for signing such an agreement varies among insurers and states.
- Buying home owner's and auto policies from the same company - If your home and your car are insured by different companies, check the cost of carrying both policies by one insurer. Your agent can give you guidance as to which insurers offer discounts.

You can also lower your insurance by requesting higher deductibles - the amount of money you pay before you make a claim. Increasing your deductible on collision and comprehensive coverage from $100 to $250, or even $500, will bring your rates down.

Remember, too, that where you live can affect your premium. A consumer's guide to insuring your automobile is available free from the Independent Insurance Agents of America by calling 1-800-991-7722.
